

eHub Sexual Violence Prevention Framework Consultation

Privacy and confidentiality

Your privacy

Sexual violence is a sensitive issue and can bring up strong feelings for people. Although you are asked to provide your name and email when you sign into the e-Hub, the information you provide will only be used for the purpose of informing the State Government's consultation on sexual violence prevention. We will not share your name or contact details with anyone without your consent. We will not take your personal information into account when analysing the results of this survey.

The comments you provide in response to survey questions may be published online or elsewhere and may be transmitted outside of Australia. You may wish to bear this in mind when providing your comments. You are not obliged to provide comments and if you do so it is under the condition that you agree that your comments may be published including on the internet. We will not publish your name or contact details without your consent.

If you participate in the Ideas Wall, your name will be published together with any comments or submissions you make. Your submissions to the Ideas Wall will be moderated and any comments that go against the acceptable use policy will not be published.

The Queensland Government is bound by the Information Privacy Act 2009. Read our privacy statement for details.
